

Table showing stakeholders
In the management of Smoke Haze Problems with Adverse Effects on Health

Policy-oriented agencies	Implementing agencies/practitioners	Support agencies
National Forest Fire and Haze Management Committee Ministry of Interior - Department of Provincial Administration - Department of Local Administration Ministry of Natural Resources and Environment - Natural Park, Wildlife and Plant Conservation Department - Royal Forestry Department - Pollution Control Department - Department of Environmental Quality Promotion Ministry of Agriculture and Cooperatives - Department of Agricultural Extension - Department of Agriculture - Land Development Department Ministry of Public Health - Department of Health - Department of Disease Control Ministry of Transport Ministry of Education Other sectors	provinces district chiefs, sub-district chiefs, village heads Local government organizations Provincial offices of natural resources and environment Office of Protected Forest Management Forest Resource Management Office Provincial Agricultural Offices District/sub-district agricultural offices Provincial Health Offices District/sub-district health offices Highway Offices Education Area Office Community/village organizations	Royal Thai Army Public Relations Department, Prime Minister's Office Regional environment offices Education institutes/universities/ Researchers/students Community Development Institute Thai Health Promotion Foundation National Council of Farmers Affected people and private business sector NGOs